Humanities' Oracle

A Teaspoon of Lifemer

*In teaspoons of time, success is brewed,
A subtle potion, often misconstrued.
It's not in grand moments or towering mounds,
But in the quiet starring, the delicate sounds.*

*A teaspoon of effort, a dash of grace,
A sprinkle of courage in life's embrace.
Success isn't loud, like a thunderous roar,
It whispers in teaspoons, at your core.*

*The steeping of dreams, the patience to wait,
Success is found in the small, not the great.
In the warmth of connections, friendships tight,
Measured in teaspoons, it comes into sight.*

*So, measure it not in mountains climbed,
But in teaspoons of joy, sweetly timed.
Success, a blend of moments small,
Brewed in teaspoons, cherished by all.*
