EDITORIAL BOARD

LOVE AGAIN

Don't be afraid to love again,
Only love can consume your pain.
For someone you will be the whole universe,
Who will read your eyes like a verse.
For you someone will be a scented flower,
Who will bloom your life and make you empower.

I know it's hard to trust again, I know it's difficult to love again, But your past has already passed, It's necessary to heal yourself as the me passed.

You deserve to be happy, You deserve to be loved.

So dear for once,

LAST DAY.....

Let's give life another chance
To take wayall of your pain,
And make you believe in the love again.

Coming out of school's gate, Unaware of my cursed fate..

Leaping onto my hands the heart shout out loud, And eyes searched for my life in midst of the crowd, Exams were over told the joyful faces, And your glimpse was than a bunch of graces.. Then I realized,

We were going to live apart a hundreds of mile..... The last day II I sa w you smile..... With your father you walked away, "Please God" was all I could pray,

Stood sll, w aing f or you to turn around, Sobbing were my exuberant wounds, Your long hair danced to bid farewell,

If I could tell

Within my heart u will always dwell.. Chased that auto with all my might, The Last day II everything was bright SII y our voice whispers our memories in my mind.. Leng m y soul burn and reminding I've lost that me, F ake smiles are now exhausted to mask my pains..

And eyes to bleed themselves dry, bursng the veins...

Every day, I die without you by my side.. Remembering the LAST DAY II I w as alive..

PAUSE

The day holding my breath. Yes, it's here, its here lastly.

But with a fear of losing it before I endure it u erly.

The sky looked blue and promising and my mind was being painted by alluring combinaons of voice on that pinnacle full of affecon and pleasure.

Those golden rays of the sun pleased me with the same smug(pride) as a child feels after his first victory in life.

It was the same for me....my first real victory of life.

I was veiled soly by the tender touch of those golden rays of the sun as if they were trying to hold me there as if they were trying to hold my soul as if they were trying to make me realise the absolute meaning to our existence.

But those golden rays began to fade away soon.

My mind wanted to live that moment a bit more before its cessaon but

What is not a constant must end someday

That plot of me was also not constant, me can never be such.

But before its end, I shouted his name standing on that

Cliff and heard the same voice again......

For that prey second of my life, my mind said PAUSE.

Let's go...

Visit a mountain so high that just a vault would make me touch the sky...

Confining the snow when it would melt on my palm,
I wanna taste the sweet bliss of winter's charm..

Holding a hot chocolate, quivering in the blanket

Holding a hot chocolate, quivering in the blanket, I would contemplate the snow slowly kissing the leaves... Let's go...

Visit a valley so deep that sun would struggle to make its rays and dust meet... Gazing at the sky when the dusk would prevail, I would grasp the lazily falling hail..

Amidst a garden, when the sun rays would finally reach, I would slowly fall asleep.. -Sugandha Chutani ECE, 3rd yr
