Net Zero Buildings

- Net Zero Buildings aim to reach a regenerative future
- Focus on 4 main areas as shown in figure.
- Net Zero Energy - already tried & tested at Building level
- Net Zero Water – Need of the hour and especially in many cities of India.
- Net Zero Waste – Important for minimizing landfills
- Net Zero Carbon – Next generation of sustainability

How to Prepare for Conventional Questions in ESE

- Follow standard text books / Relevant study material
- Practice numerical questions with calculator rather than mere reading
- Observe the previous pattern of questions to identify the important areas
- Selective preparation if time is insufficient as there is choice
- Practice Mock tests to learn time management
- Learn techniques on how to write conventional questions

SUBJECT: Interaction between 1st year and 4th year students (Learn from the seniors)

Dear Students, I hope you all are keeping yourself safe in this challenging time.

High achievers are often marked, unsurprisingly, by a strong motive to achieve. In this time of life, you are ready to discover who you really are. You are now making your own decisions and learning what makes you unique from others. For this purpose interaction with seniors is extremely important to self regulate self learning.

The Department is organizing a interaction between 1st year and 4th (learn from your seniors) year students as per the following schedule

Date	Time	Topic	Resource Person (Final Year Students)
5 th June 2021 (Saturday)	3:00 PM to 4:00 PM	"Importance of Linux and DevOps for Beginners"	✓ Akash Bajpai (Placed in Lowe's India) ✓ Aakash Goel (Placed in Infosys) ✓ Geetika Garg (Placed in ZS Associates) ✓ Nancy (Placed in Infoedge) ✓ Pallavi Goyal (Placed in HashedIn and Accenture)

Note:

- ✓ The program link will be shared by the program coordinator.
- ✓ First Year students if IT and CSIT are advised to interact with your seniors and clear their various doubts
