Dear sir, greetings of the day!

Our MBA department has an MoU with Namangan Institute of Engineering Technology, Namangan, Uzbekistan. During the visit of their team to KIET for signing MoU, they had also visited the Mechanical Engineering Department and were quite impressed with the facilities developed and faculty profile.

Two week before, officials from NIET, Uzbekistan had contacted MBA faculty members Dr. Mani Tyagi and Dr. Ranchay Bhateja for having a meeting with me for organizing a training programme (FDP) for the faculty members of Department of Mechanical Engineering, NIET, Namangan(Uzbekistan).

A meeting was arranged 10 days before by Dr. Mani and Dr Ranchay and was attended by HoD (ME-Uzbekistan), other senior professors from NIET Uzbekistan, Dr. Mani Tyagi, Dr. Ranchay Bhateja and myself. In the meeting NIET, Namangan has requested to organize an online one week FDP for their faculty members on Mechanical engineering topics by our department (KIET). It was decided that ME department (KIET) will propose the schedule and contents of the FDP and proposal to be shared with NIET Uzbekistan for their consent for the suggested contents.

A proposal of the FDP on "Materials, Design and Simulation" was communicated by me to NIET Uzbekistan last week and they have given their consent for the contents and FDP time as 4-6 PM.

Your kind approval is requested for organizing the FDP on "Materials, Design and Simulation" by Mechanical Engineering Department KIET from 5 October 2020 to 9 October 2020 at 4 -6 PM(IST) for faculty members of NIET, NAMANGAN, Uzbekistan.

Submitted for your kind approval of FDP.

Background of composite materials

- ❑ The evolution of humankind can be seen in the light of the development of material, i.e., the Stone Age, the Bronze Age, and the Iron Age.
- ❑ The current era of Polymeric belongs to the composite materials because of its lighter weight, higher strength, corrosion resistance, easy to shape and durability.
- ❑ The composites are not new to the humankind; it has a history of more than 3000 years, as Egyptian in the ancient age, use to construct walls from the bricks made of mud with straw as reinforcing component.
- ❑ Another example of composites application can be seen, around 1200 AD from Mongols. They developed a bow made up of animal glue as matrix while animal bone, and wood as reinforcement.
- ❑ The word composites' derived from the Latin word composites, which means "put together" signifying something made by putting together different parts or materials.
- ❑ The composites are the combination of two elements in which one of the elements, called the reinforcing phase; it may be in the form of fibers sheets or particles implanted in the other element called the matrix phase.

Reasons for the use of polymeric materials as matrix in composites

www.kiet.edu

- The mechanical properties of polymers are inadequate for structural purposes to be used alone, hence benefits are gained by reinforcing the polymers.
- Processing of PMCs need not involve high pressure and high temperature.
- The equipment required for PMCs are much simpler

RESINS (POLYMERS)

Epoxy
Epoxy is a thermosetting epoxide polymer that cures (polymerizes and crosslinks) when mixed with a catalyzing agent or "hardener".

- More expensive and more viscous than polyester
- Epoxies have a major advantage that they are usually cured in two or more stages. This allows preforms to be pre-impregnated with the epoxy in a partially cured state. The pre-preg may be stored, before moulded into the final shape and then cured.

Polyester Resin:
Polyester Resin is the product of an acid-glycol reaction commonly blended with a monomer to create a polymer resin. In its thermosetting form it is the most common resin used in the FRP industry. They need an accelerator and catalyst for completing the curing reaction.

- Isophthalic is a polyester resin based on isophthalic acid, generally higher in properties than a general-purpose or ortho-phthalic polyester resin.
- Ortho-phthalic or Ortho Resin is a polyester resin based on ortho-phthalic acid, also known as a general-purpose resin (GP).

Dear Sir,

1. In my view, it is a good opportunity to show our strength. By this guest lecture proposal, not only ME department relationship with them.

2. We can plan to collaborate on a student exchange program in future that will benefit both from the faculty exchange.

3. In their proposal, Remuneration per lecture is not given. I ask Dr. Khan (HoD-ME) regarding this and their ear.

4. It can be done under IRCDC with your kind permission.

Thank you.

With Regards.

Report on the Expert Talk

A Virtual Expert Talk was organized on the topic “Current Trends and Innovations in Biological Screening & Role of Zebra Fish in Drug Discovery” jointly organized by KIET School Of Pharmacy & TBI-KIET Group of Institutions, Ghaziabad in association with CSIR-Indian Institute of Toxicology Research, Lucknow on 28th Jan 2021 at Google Meet platform.

The programme commenced with welcoming of Director Sir, Dr. (Col.) A. Garg, Joint Director Sir, Dr. Manoj Goel, and the Chief Guests of Honour Dr. Aditya B. Pant, Senior Principal Scientist, System Toxicology & Health Risk Assessment, CSIR-Indian Institute of Toxicology Research & Dr. Kailash Chandra Khulbe, Senior Principal Scientist, Research Planning & Business Development, CSIR-IITR.

Dean R& D Dr. Sanjay Kumar Sharma, GM-TBI, Dean Academics Dr. Anil Ahlawat and Dr. Satendra Kumar and Principal, KIET School Of Pharmacy, Dr. K. Nagarajan, all the HOD’s of various departments and faculty members were also welcomed.

First of all, Dr. Satendra Kumar gave an overview of MOU that’s going to be signed between KIET Group of Institutions and CSIR-IITR. This was followed by a speech by Dr, Sanjay Kumar Sharma, Dean R& D on the topic “Possibilities of collaboration.

Then Director Sir addressed the audience and highly motivated and enlightened the faculty members how they can benefit jointly from this collaboration and can go for joint research proposals, filing patents and making excellent publications.

Then Professor Research, Dr. Ashu Mittal delivered a presentation where he highlighted “Collaborative Research Areas” where the joint collaboration with CSIR-IITR can be very beneficial.

Some of the areas he mentioned were :

- ▶ Formulation development (Nano formulation based drug delivery, Transdermal therapeutic systems, multiparticulate drug delivery systems, etc)
- ▶ Pharmacological and toxicological screening
- ▶ Phytochemistry
- ▶ Establishment of newer Zebra fish models for anticancer studies
- ▶ Computer aided drug designing etc

A felicitation ceremony was conducted before the interactive session with the speakers. All the dignitaries and chief guests were felicitated with a virtual bouquet as a token of honor and respect.

This was followed by the session by Dr. Aditya B. Pant, Senior Principal Scientist System Toxicology & Health Risk Assessment Group CSIR-Indian Institute of Toxicology Research, Lucknow on an overview on current trends and innovations in biological screening.

- He started his talk by first summarizing the overall process of drug discovery that how the new molecule isolated from natural source or synthesized in laboratory reaches the market, what are the different phases that the investigational molecule has to go through to finally attain the status of pharmacologically active drug. Further, he also enlightened the participants for alternate models for biological screening such as algae, drosophila and zebra fish. Zebra fish is basically used for studying the safety profile of a drug on the environment.
- Dr. Pant was also able to abolish all the misconceptions regarding the Ayurvedic formulations. He said that according to AYUSH, for preparing the herbal formulations, the crude drug should be taken from the cultivated plants and not the wild one. The species should be well defined. The chemical fingerprinting of the plant should be well established. All the levels of heavy metals, pesticides, microorganisms and aflatoxins in the plant material should be below that mentioned in Ayurvedic Pharmacopoeia (AP). Moreover, if someone intends to prepare the ayurvedic formulations with the herbs mentioned in AP and the dose is also same or lesser as that mentioned in AP, then there is no requirement of the safety studies, During filing Ayurveda NDA, the standard literature from AP can be attached for the safety profile.

- Moving ahead, he discussed that the nanoformulations exhibit passive absorption and biodistribution in non-targeted organ resulting into biomagnifications in body as well as environment. Thus the safety assessment of such formulations is very essential.
- Infact, the talk captured the interest of the participants belonging to the different streams of Pharmaceutical sciences as well as those from various engineering branches also.

The session ended by giving Vote of Thanks to all speakers and guests, participants by Dr. Manoj Goel, Joint Director, KIET Group of Institutions, Ghaziabad.

Total number of participants in the programme : 45

Dear Mr. Ashish,

In reference to our discussion about giving the students real time industry based problems, we propose the following.

“design of carbon fiber roof top monopole for communication”

The project involves the replacement of existing truss based metal towers for mounting of dish antenna/ microwave and other receiving antenna for communication.

Objective is to reduce weight and commissioning time of such towers.

This will be needed to be completed in a time duration of 2-3 months.

The monopole will have to be designed for following parameters-

1. Wind speeds
2. Twist and sway
3. Structural loads

Please arrange for a meeting with the team of concerned people.

All details will be shared on an as-needed basis.

Best Regards,

Anuj Bansal

About the Conference

The Central and State Governments have taken major initiatives in enhancing public utility and citizen services to improve the Quality of Life.
